SAILORS WERE THIRSTY.

Six blue ackets from the gunboat Wheeling faced Judge Lindsay this morning on a charge of drunkenness. One of the men acted as spokesman for the crowd. He said that they had been stationed at Pago Pago for three years. There was no liquor to be had there, so during all that time they had been on the water wagon. On reaching Honolulu they had tried to make up for lost time.

The passenger truing scheduled to leave Honolulu at 7:30 a. m. and 11:05 a. m. and 2:05 p. m. will not be run on Monday, July 4. Special train for the boat races at Pearl Harbor will leave Honolulu at 9 o'clock. Excursion tickets, 75 cents.

The mountain section of the Ili of Kalawahine, containing an area of 2931/6 acres. This land extends from a short distauce above the Lunalilo Home to the peak of Tantalus and thence to the head of Manoa valley. It includes a portion of the upper section of Pauca The Government Tantalus Road winds through the property for about three miles, making easy access avail-able to all parts. It contains all of the choice, available locations for Mountain Homes. There are never-failing springs at the upper end of the property which could be opened up and made to furnish an ample water surply. There are several houses and gardens on the property.

The land is heavily timbered and reaches an elevation at its highest point of over 2,000 feet. In the tropics high elevations bring health. For fus-

122 King St. . OAHU PRISON ECHO.

The Fourth of July issue of "The Oahu Prison Echo" is one of the most artistic displays of patriotic penman-ship that has ever been produced in this Territory. The Declaration of In-dependence is done in red and blue ink, makeup taking the form of old Independence Bell. The scheme is car-ried out in perfect detail even to the crack in the bell and the inscription "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the habitants thereof."

Miss J. Jaunita K. Beckley, daughter of Admiral Mooheau, is the center of a jolly party arriving by the Kinau Wed-nesday, consisting of Mrs. Wm. P. Lewis, Mrs. Wagner and "Toota" Cunha. They will attend the races and other features of the Fourth of July celebration and possibly take a trip to the volcano.—Hilo Tribune.
